

ought to have done. I am talking about Ak-Sar-Ben. These other little training tracks or farm team tracks for Ak-Sar-Ben, I am not even talking about them. I think what is being done is not the best policy, and at this point I am not able to support it, but I will listen to Senator Conway's plaintive plea which if it accords with the mournful expression he has, he might touch me in my heart even if he can't touch me in my intellect.

SENATOR MOREHEAD: Before we go to the next speaker, I would like to take this opportunity to introduce in the south balcony guests of Senator Barrett, 22 sixth grade students from Overton School in Overton, Nebraska accompanied by sponsors. Welcome to your Legislature. The next speaker, Senator Rupp.

SENATOR RUPP: (Microphone off.) Speak on the bill.

SENATOR MOREHEAD: All right. Senator Conway for the second time.

SENATOR CONWAY: (No response.)

SENATOR MOREHEAD: Senator Marsh for the second time.

SENATOR MARSH: Thank you, Senator Morehead. The point has been clarified. Thank you, Senator Vard Johnson, and Mr. Skochdopole did slide an amendment in that went through this body several years ago, and what originally was to be given to the permanent school fund for the students of all of Nebraska no longer is and those dollars which are unclaimed by the gambling interests at our various and sundry racing institutions are now kept as profit by the various sundry gambling institutions. No, I will not be supporting this measure.

SENATOR MOREHEAD: Senator Chambers for the second time.

SENATOR CHAMBERS: Senator Johnson, members of the Legislature, and Madam Chairperson, Senator Johnson, what amount of money is generally unclaimed at Ak-Sar-Ben?

SENATOR V. JOHNSON: I am sending a runner back to find out.

SENATOR CHAMBERS: Do you see, members of the Legislature, the pig in a poke, so to speak, that we are being asked to
